

ACCIDENT CHECKLIST: Assess the Situation, get off the road, collect driver's info, take pictures.

- If someone is hurt, call 911 immediately
- If no one is hurt but there is a lot of damage, call the Police
- Police Report – Make Sure Your Version is Accurate

- If it's safe to move your vehicle, do so. If it's not safe to move your vehicle, don't! Seek Medical Treatment

- Even if you feel ok, many injuries are not realized right away. Get as much Information as Possible

- Collect Other Driver's Information
 - Name
 - Address
 - Phone Number
 - Driver's license number
 - Email Address
 - Make, model and year of the vehicle
 - License plate number
 - Insurance carrier and policy number

- Collect Witness Information
 - Name,
 - Phone Number
 - Email Address
 - Damage to your motorcycle
 - People involved in the accident
 - Other Driver's license and insurance info
 - Accident location and road conditions

Get Police information

- Officer's name and agency
- ID number
- Police report number
- Station location

- KEEP RECORD of all doctor's visits & notes, time off work, correspondence anything about the accident.

Contact your Insurance Company

- To report the accident
- DO NOT contact the other party's insurance

Call Russ Brown Motorcycle Attorneys® for a Free Consultation

- Insurance companies may try to get you to settle quickly and for less. DON'T! Be sure to talk to one of our experience motorcycle accident attorneys before you do anything!